“ So sad to hear the news about Aaron. I had not seen him in several years (living in CA) but I have such wonderful memories growing up when we would stop by San Fernando Valley and visit the family on our way home from Texas, picking him up for our Disney Land adventures. Our stops were short, but very enjoyable. We would laugh all the way home comparing stories and the silliness that only young, energetic kids know. Just remembering the way only he could say "compadre Pollo" makes me smile. Our love and condolences to the family. God Bless.
