“ Albert was a very kind Friend. He was always laughing and joking at work. I will always remember Albert telling me one day at work. Turi, just remember that when ever someone tries to make your day a bad one. Just smile and make tge best if it. Also never take home problems or stress from work. When you go home at the end Love your Family and enjoy your time with your loved ones ❤️ I will miss you my childhood friend and brother. Rest In Peace 🙏

Albert I appreciate you and love you very much just for the fact that on August 12 of 1988 you and my Loving Tia Amanda Opened your doors and your Hearts to me and My Little Brother Joel And Accepted us as two of yours, nobody acted as fast as you to keep us feeling loved and cared for, we felt at home and safe cause you had a big heart, and showed us what love was all about, even though as we grew up we were a little distant but when we would see each other you still had that carisma towards me and my brother and to all of us OCHOA'S. You were the Tio To Be With Because you Had A Big heart and we felt the positive vibes when you were around, with that being said I'm at peace that you are no longer suffering and that you are once again with many of our loved ones, May You Rest In Peace.....Te Wacho!
