“ Our deepest sympathy to all of the Loreen & Guzman family. May God comfort each and everyone of you in this difficult time. AJ will be greatly missed by us! We will miss his sweet smile and kind gesture. We will never forget the last time we sat close to his family at church On Father's Day after all dads received their token gifts for the day. AJ kept looking at Joel gift a long orange cup filled with candy AJ told him my dads favorite candy is in the cup and smiled I myself asked him which one is it and he smiled again and said the butterfinger near the middle of the cup he laughed as the candy kept getting stuck and wouldn't come out after giving him the candy he kept smiling and still looking at the cup he said I like the color orange just like the cup and he smiled once again. Both my husband and I looked at each other and Joel asked him you like it he said yes with a big smile Joel said keep it and he got the cup. AJ kept smiling and said thank you. I pray for the parents and brothers may the always treasure the beautiful memories of their son. As now he is a precious angel looking upon them 🙏 God bless you all!
