“ Adrián was a wonderful man who loved his beautiful wife, Rosie, and his 2 wonderful children with all his heart. Many years ago, when the children were little, Adrián shared with my husband and me that his family meant everything to him. It was evident that this was the case because the children always wore the most-enchanting, million-dollar smile. For Adrián, showering his family with love and affection was the most-important thing in the world, and he made sure to always declare it to his friends. May God forever bless you and all those persons so dear to your heart, Adrián. Pedro and I thank you for sharing your feelings about your family with us, and even though you are no longer physically present, your presence will forever remain in the hearts of those lucky enough to have met you. Rest in peace. Martha and Pedro Treviño
