“ I didn't realize that he had passed away my condolences to the family . I'm just now finding out and it's February 2023 I probably saw this before and ignored it and I'm so sorry . Mr. González was my piano teacher for about 13 years more than half my life and he will be missed .

“ Mr. Gonzalez was my daughter's first piano teacher and our family friend. It is so fortunate to have him as a teacher. He was very passionate about piano and teaching. He had enormous charm and a great sense of humor. We will miss him tremendously. His smiley face will stay in our memory forever.

“ Mr. Gonzalez was the very first real piano teacher I had, but he was so much more than that. He was my friend and confidant throughout my entire upbringing. He did more than just teach me piano - he'd crack jokes and make me laugh when I was sad, and give me life advice when I was headed in the wrong direction. I am so grateful to have had him on my journey and will always keep him in my thoughts.

“ Alejandro has been the piano teacher of both my kids since their childhood. He is gifted and high-standard, meanwhile loving and gentle. My second son is autistic, and I sit with him during many of his piano classes. Without Alejandro, it is impossible for him to learn piano up to the Advanced Bach level. He is living in our memory forever. - Sun's family

“ Alejandro was a loving and beautiful person, pianist, teacher, and husband. His gifted piano performances were amazing and etched into my memory, particularly the wonderful duets with his beloved wife, lby. Watching them play together expressed such love, beyond the music, between them. His courage during this difficult battle with cancer was inspiring. Always encouraging, supportive, with his students and fellow teachers, he has left an amazing legacy of inspiration for all who knew him. We will miss him tremendously, but we will never forget him. Our hearts are full of love for him and for lby.

“ Alex was by far the kindest human being I've ever met. Since his childhood, he showed nothing but love to everything life presented. I've never known him to show any ill or negative acts towards anything or anyone. I'm sure he has left many with a hollow and sad, empty feeling. Un día nos veremos de nuevo. Que en pas descanse my Primito tan lindo! Marco Antonio Moreno Gonzales

“ Alexander was extraordinary. An excellent human being, who more than a teacher we feel part of our family. He leaves us a legacy in the learning that our daughter received, but he also leaves us with deep sadness. We are going to miss it. Mariné Family
