“ Near the end of may 2018, me and my dad took a drive from Trimble, Missouri to Mission, Texas to visit my cousins and grandma Daffin (Grammy) During the trip, Grammy explained that she was coloring various pictures with gel pens and would like to give to give me a piece of her artwork. I chose this one and put it in a frame. It hangs on the wall in my room in remembrance of her and her artistic talent. Rest in peace Grammy, you will be missed by many.

That's beautiful! She always loved creating trees in her art.
