

Dorothy Ellsworth Gulliver-Kelberlau

May 27, 1921 - November 15, 2011

HOUSTON- Dorothy Ellsworth Gulliver Kelberlau, 90, entered into eternal rest on Tuesday, November 15, 2011 at Memorial Hermann Memorial City Hospital in Houston. She was born to Mr. and Mrs. Will Gulliver in Rhinebeck, New York on May 27, 1921. Left to cherish her memory is her loving son and daughter-in-law, Hank and Amy Kelberlau of Houston. She will also be greatly missed by her grandchildren, Marissa, Heather, and Allen and her six great grandchildren of Houston.

Chapel service will be led by Pastor Jean Ann Karm of St. Marks United Methodist Church on Wednesday, November 23, 2011 at 10:00a.m. at Virgil Wilson Memorial Chapel in Mission. Interment will follow to Valley Memorial Gardens in McAllen. You are invited to sign the online guest book at www.virgilwilsonmortuary.com Funeral arrangements have been entrusted to the care of Virgil Wilson Mortuary of Mission.

Cemetery Details

Palm Valley Memorial Gardens

Pharr, TX

Previous Events

Service

NOV 23. 10:00 AM - 10:30 AM (CT)

Virgil Wilson Mortuary- Mission TX

2200 N. Conway Ave

Mission, TX 78572

(956) 585-2721

vwmision@hotmail.com

<https://www.lordandifuneralhomes.com>

Tribute Wall

“ Dorothy Ellsworth Gulliver-Kelberlau

October 08, 2023 at 11:35 AM

“ God bless you Hank and Amy. Seems that Dorothy had a very long and full life and is receiving the ultimate healing and reward. Have been wondering about you. May the God of all hope and comfort fill you all joy in believing by the power of the Holy Spirit. Allow the Lord to carry your grief and sorrow by the power of the Spirit.

God Bless, Pastor Richard Smith; Abundant Life Christian Fellowship Wharton

Richard Smith - November 27, 2011 at 05:13 PM