Elizabeth was an incredible mother, friend and sister. She lived her life with a strength and resilience that would shake you. Her resolution absolute her determination unmatched she dedicated her life to her family and husband. In her later years she filled her days attending her adult day care accompanied by her husband our father Antonio Garcia, playing bingo and nurturing the friendships built there. Spending time with her family was her favorite pass time, her caldo de res would have us coming in from all over the Rio Grande Valley to visit and eat. We shared many a laugh and memorable moments at our mother's table. Her home always filled with her love and joy for her children, her love for us could move mountains and part seas. Such was the faith we had in our mother's loving embrace. She is mourned by her grandchildren and great grandchildren Valeria, Vanessa, Jose (JR) Angel, Abigail, Crystal, Jaziel, Julio Cesar, Clemencia, Juan Pablo (JP) Azael, Joziel, Angela, Victoria, Faith, Abraham & Sebastian (pinpon), great grandchildren: Zoey, Jose Santos, Eric & Sarai those who adoringly called her Grandma Chagua.
