“ My heart just breaks that you are gone! It doesn't seem real! I know I will see you again ! We love you so very much! Heaven is blessed to have you! Love Aunt Mary and Uncle Rodney Roland

“ How can I have so many words yet no words at the same time? Erica, you are the greatest friend I've ever known. We have experienced so many highs and lows together and I'm so thankful that through it all I had you by my side. You are truly the kindest and most caring person. I'll never ever forget our times together— usually being excited about some cute animals or our shopaholic tendencies. Not only did you love to spoil the animals but you also loved to spoil your friends. The joy you brought to all of us will forever be remembered and forever be missed. You are my role model and I can only pray that I can take on life and gracefully as you did❤️

“ I have so many memories of messages we shared and etc but another great memory was when I was having a bad day at work and on my last hour of working you show up in my drive thru and just make my whole day great.

😊 I was so happy to see you ❤️ rest peacefully 🙏

“ From the moment I met you, you were nothing but sweet to me. When I had no knowledge on how to raise a guinea pig or anything for him you were there with everything even though you barely knew me and I was so grateful for it. We got to be close friends. You always had a heart of gold. ❤️

“ Erica you were such a precious person. When my Mama was sick you would ask about her & send your prayers. Be at Peace
