“ I could not have picked a better Father Mother-In Law.

I learned from the start that Jim never met a stranger. My first meeting with Jim and Bobbie was when Christy and I met them at the Twin Lakes Club in Wichita for dinner and dancing where Jim and I ended up sharing a dance with one another before that evening ended. Then latter at our wedding Jim shared a dance with my Dad. I know this would seem rather strange to most folks but those simple acts defined Jim forever in my mind. He had a genuine interested in everyone he met and how their life was going. Always listening and offering to help if needed when he could. I was always amazed with his knowledge - especially of mechanical devices and their workings.

Jim and Bobbie lived and led by example.

They loved each other very-very much and always showed it. As a married couple they set the bar very high for the rest of us couples. I observed this early on and was always amazed by their example - I strived to do the same with Christy's and my marriage. I loved and respected that man very much.
