“ Keith, he was like a Little brother to me. He was amazing in so many ways, he could put a smile on your face and make you happy just by his laugh. He had an adorable laugh, and his voice I can still hear his voice(: I was his only aunt, he couldn't say my name so he called me "nanaiee". I still remember his voice when he would say that. And also when he would call me "stupid nananie"(: He also loved his Fries! When he would come to my house, he would always always ask for fries he would say "wela gimmie fries" he would sometimes whisper it to us cuz his dad didn't let him eat so much junk food, but we still gave him. I still remember the smallest things of him, he's the kind of baby that leaves a print on you that will last forever.? I'll always&forever love him and miss him so much. I'll never forget him, and his big smile that he always had on his little face. I will always love you Keith, can't wait to see you again.?”

“ Small unforgettable and cute things he would do include... turning on his belly and with his head, moving it up and down he would pull his whole body forward (like a snail) he would also talk whale with dory at a younger age. He loved courage the cowardly dog. If mommy was sad he would say mommy not ugly, mommy pretty. He always had a huge smile. His voice was beautiful. He sang Spanish which when I heard him the first time he made me sooo proud. He always wanted to do things for himself such as putting away his toys or playing his I pad he'd say I want to do it or I want to touch it. After I'd take him a pic he'd always say let me see. He would sing YMCA, El venado, what the fox say, and many more songs. I even have a video of him playing his flute song: twinkle twinkle. He loved to fight nacho libre with his daddy. He loved he's daddy so very much. Loved ice cream, pizza, and potato/fries. He had a crush on his teacher Mrs. Lopez and every time after school I'd ask what did u do and he'd reply nope I'm mad at Emma (a lil girl who had a crush on him) he disliked waking up in the morning but never did I have trouble with him he'd be up and about right after. There's so many memories I want to share these r just a few. Most importantly he had a huge heart and he loved his mommy and daddy and playing dinosaur at grandma's n he knew he was well loved from us too. I miss him soo much there's not a day u don't cross my mind I wish u were here but I know u are in heaven flying having fun just waiting to see mommy and daddy again.

“ This little guy was more than a joy to have around, he was and always will be a true warrior. He always had a smile on his face and made anyones day by just making his awesome animal sounds or copying his dads prhases. Knowing that he is probably choking dudes out and making them tap in heaven is a great feeling. Will always love our little nephew till the ends of time!!!

“ Keith was the smartest, kindest little boy I have ever met. What I will miss the most about Keith was his laughter, he had the cutest laugh ever. The times when I would be on the phone with his mom (Valerie) I would hear him giggling, or playing with his Kitty cat, or just on his iPad. I especially loved the way he would sing to me, such a little sweet heart. Keith will be very missed, I know I will for sure. He is in a better place. I know he is watching over his family and friends. Bet he is very excited that he is going to be a big brother. He is going to be the best big brother. Miss you tons Keith, it's just a see you later not a good bye. See you soon little buddy.

“ I have so many memories of Keith, but what I remember the most were his sweet smile and his voice. He was such a joy to be around. I always felt better after having spent time with him. I loved hearing him say, "Don't go Lola." I will never forget him. Thank you Valerie and Oscar for sharing him with me for a little while.
