

Lucila Amparo Esparza

November 14, 1940 - January 23, 2023

Lucila Amparo Esparza was born in Mission, Texas on November 14, 1940. Her parents were Consuelo Guzman and Damacio Ortiz. She is survived by her loving husband of 62 years, Jose Guadalupe Esparza and her four children. Luz Maria Esparza Hinojosa, Jesus Rene ( Berta) Esparza; Jose Antonio (Virginia) Esparza and Linda Lourdes (William) Esparza Beverly. She was preceded in death by her mother Consuelo Guzman and her siblings Yolanda ( Pedro) Villarreal, Jose Guzman and David ( Victoria) Ortiz. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Lizette Muniz, Jose Antonio Esparza Jr.; Angelica Esparza; Robert Esparza; Krystal Esparza, Kathy Pawelek; Bebelyn Gonzalez and Carlo Hinojosa.

She was a loving mother and homemaker. Our mother enjoyed reading, watching novelas; playing chalupa and spending time with her loved ones. She also had a close relationship with her sister Yolanda whom she talked to every day. After our aunt's passing, she would continue to call our uncle until her Alzheimer's affected her from doing so. We are sure that my mother and her siblings are catching up in heaven along with our grandmother and extended relatives.

Our mother is also survived by her cousins Eva Ornelas, Joe Garcia, and numerous nephews and nieces. We would also like to thank our cousin Maria de Jesus Aguilar Rincon for taking care of our mom and dad. We are grateful to her grandson Carlo Hinojosa as well for assisting in the care of both of his grandparents. We are also grateful to the staff at Village Healthcare and Rehabilitation for the wonderful care of our mother in her last years.

Pallbearers are Jesus Rene Esparza, Jose Antonio Esparza; Joe Garcia; Carlo Hinojosa; Rolando Hinojosa and Gilbert Ortiz.

“ We're thinking of the family of Mrs. Esparza. How blessed you are for having such a wonderful woman in your life to instill the values of life that you all portray. God bless you Luz Maria, and your father, brothers and sister.

“ As I think about Lucila, I see her with a shy smile. She was a very smart lady and an avid reader. She was knowledgeable about many topics and was interested in my opinion. She took interest in how I was and what was new. Lucila was key to our family tree. I loved asking her questions about our ancestors. She loved her family. These are a few of the things I will miss about her. Be in peace and may many angels take your hand to heaven.

Love, Eva Ornelas and family
