

Lydia Leal

December 31, 1929 - July 25, 2014

Mission - Lydia Leal passed away on July 25, 2014 in Mission, Texas where she lived all of her life since 1955. She was born on Dec 31, 1929 in Edinburg, TX. She was preceded in death by her parents Martin Gonzalez and Maria Maltos, a brother Alvaro Gonzalez, a sister Viola Benitez and a niece Sandra Chavez, all from Edinburg. She was also preceded in death by her husband Roberto Leal of Mission.

She is survived by her 4 children: Telma (Jimmy) Cardenas of Mission, Nelda (Todd) Feldcher of Kingsville. Also, Marina (Bruno) Fugiel of Arizona and Robert Leal Jr of Florida. She is also survived by two other sisters Perla Longoria and Irma Galvan, both of Edinburg.

Lydia loved being involved in spiritual activities and made time to volunteer to teach people about the Bible. Her most important goal in life was to please Jehovah God the Almighty. She also loved her family very much and taught them what was most important in life. She firmly believed in God's promises at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28, 29. But most of all she was looking forward to being in God's New World very soon. (2 Peter 3:13)

Memorial Services will be held at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses at 2304 N. McColl Rd. in McAllen, TX on Sunday, August 03, 2014 at 7:00 PM. Arrangements are under the care of Virgil Wilson Mortuary of Mission, Texas.
