“ One of my favorite memories with Mr. Garcia was when he made Veronica and me fresh nopales. He taught us how to clean and cook them.

We always looked forward to spotting him at McDonald's or Walmart with his coffee.

He was such a happy man, and he will be missed. ❤️

“ My husband and I got to know Manuel and his wife Sylvia when our daughters were in school together. We spent many Friday nights selling nachos for the band boosters. We have remained family friends through the years and have shared some birthdays, a wedding, holidays, and losses. He always had a smile and was genuinely caring. He will be missed by so many. -
