“ Rocko's Grandpa

Since before I met him we have known his as just that. My oldest daughter and Rock have been classmates and friends for 6 years. In Kindergarten Rocko's Grandpa and Grandma would bring Rocko lunch at school. Often, my mom was there at the same time. He always looked at Rocko with such adoration. He would ask Rocko to share his fries with my daughter.

We ran into Rocko's Grandpa and Grandma frequently when we were out and about. They were always so happy to see us.

The next school year I had another daughter there. Rocko's Grandpa continued to bring Rocko lunch and he started to bring fries for my daughters as well.

He always greeted my family and I with a smile and a hug. I admired how busy he kept. We saw him all the time.

I didn't learn of his name until he passed. I think the name we have given him is fitting. He was a friend, a father, a husband, a grandfather, he was many things.

But his love of his grandchildren, all of them, is what we remember the most.

Rocko's Grandpa

Much love to all of those who loved Rocko's Grandpa.
