“ When I was 3 or 4 years old, Delia and I would spend time at Aunt Maria's house. I remember her making tacos of frijoles for me to eat. For some reason, I only liked mashed beans, so she would squish the beans inside the taco for me. She was a very sweet lady. Later on, when Mom would end up at the Mission Hospital, she would always be one of the first visitors to check on my mom. She had a great sense of humor and reminded me of my dad. She will be missed.

“ Mama Guerra. Knowing and being partner to your youngest son Rene for 12 plus years has been my honor. I will miss the the trips we would make from Houston specifically to see you on the many special occasions in which the KINGDOM (or rather QUEENSLAND) of your huge family would all come together to honor you mama. You were and in memory still are royalty to not just your bloodline but to those like myself who are linked to your family by the kindness and good values that you've passed on. Ren is a shinning example.

I'm going to miss the breakfast tortillas you used to make Ren and I on the last day that we would be in town to say good bye and express the fact we will miss you and we love you and head back to Houston by mid afternoon.

I was just about always the last one to hug you good bye. Whether anyone else ever noticed or not EVERYTIME even the last time I hugged you good bye in December you always told me with a soft voice, "Please take care of my son" I promise to keep that promise. I won't let you down Mama Guerra.

*Love always.
