“ Precious Prima...I'll remember going out to the pastures behind your house & Mama Tula's house, discovering a baby rabbits nest, being chased by a bull in a pasture & all of us diving through a fence, young, me, Eddie , Mauro...telling. Effie. 'no asthma attack!' Stealthily sneaking back up behind mama Tula's as it rained suddenly, we. all covered in mud & fearing we'd get a nalgada...for wandering far away, only to see young mom & mine with cameras taking photos. I remember seeing witch young grand baby. I'm young big car when I visited... see you as a teen, young mom..RIP precious one.

“ My heartfelt condolences to all her family.

I have so many cherished memories of my time spent with Marina when I lived in San Antonio. My very favorites are the times that we spent traveling to the valley to visit our family and friends; my brother-in-law John, who was stationed at Carswell Air Force Base would pick us up in San Antonio along with my husband, Ramon and Mauro. We had the radio playing all our favorite 70s songs and sing along at the top of our lungs. Those were really special and fun times.

May she rest in peace and love. 🙏❤️ Melba
