“ The last of my wonderful Tias to leave this earth, Ninfa, I will always remember your laughter and the sound of your voice. You left behind your sister, Eludivina Vega Guerrero and your brother Albert Guerrero that love you so much, you 3 were always on the phone, talking laughing crying and supporting each other through this beautiful life. Yes we have a big family and there was lots to say, Good bad or indifferent. You always loved a great adventure like when Frank took you around the block on a motorcycle chopper. I added some pictures to celebrate your life. And we know you are now celebrating your Heavenly life with the families who left before you.

“ I remember my Dad Ruben Guerrero calling Tia Ninfa every sat or sun and sharing all the things going on in his life with her and her doing the same at the end of each conversation he would tell her... I lub you hermana!... I always thought how cheesy, now I think of how amazing his relationship with my beautiful Tia Ninfa was. There was always so much affection radiating from her. See you heaven Tia!

“ Tia Ninfa had a bubbly spirit. She was always laughing and made you feel special in her own way. She is now with her brother, Ruben Guerrero, my dad. May God give the family peace. We love you. Isabel and Edgar Cruz
