“ This message is for Oscar Molano's children...about 2 years ago we were at a training in College Station and I always saw him at our preparedness trainings and just exchanged "Hellos" this training was different cause I asked him for a ride from the hotel to training. I got lost the 1st day so he said he would give me a ride...he was such a gentleman...we had breakfast and it was then that he shared how much he loved his children and he was really proud of you both..He showed me your pictures and he had a big happy smile ..when talking about you guys. I didn't get to see him again till a few months ago here in weslaco training. He said he was doing well...I didn't know your dad that long but with that small little conversation we had that morning during breakfast I knew he was a proud father...I just felt it in my heat to let you both know.
