“ Tío Rafael always carried a wide smile on his face. I'll always remember his kindness. One memory I have of him is that one day he randomly asked me to prepare his income tax. I was very young and had no experience on preparing taxes, but for some reason he trusted me and encouraged me to do them. Everything went well and he was happy with his return. He made me believe that I was capable of doing new new and challenging things. He will be remembered as a hard working person and of a man of his word. He was always seen with Tia Chela every where he went. He leaves a great legacy of how to be a gentleman, great husband and exemplary father. Descanse en paz Tio Rafa!
