“Ramiro was such a special cousin to me! His mom, Angelica, and my mom were cousins. Since we lived in Dallas, every annual vacation or funeral was a trip to Mission, Texas.

In later years, we loved reminiscing about our childhood days of sharing chocolate donuts from a nearby bakery and playing in and around Pino Street. As a young adult, he made a special trip to visit us in Dallas to attend my college graduation. After marrying, I continued to visit him every trip I made to Mission, as did my brother and his family. We have fond memories of him recommending the best places to eat and sharing laughters and making memories! His kind spirit and hospitality never failed! I am so grateful for the love he shared! I will miss him each time I visit the Valley, but will always remember his “Love You More!”
