“ "Ray you made my life far more richer by being in it. You showed me that love arrives when you are not looking and comes from the most unexpected and unlikely person that crosses your path. I was blessed when you found me. I will always love you and cherish the memories we made together and the ones you gave me. To you my love, yellow little carnations with baby breath flowers, until we meet again."

My first memory of Ray is, "Good Morning, may I carry that briefcase for you"?
My last memory of Ray is, "you know I love".

“ Sad... when they say teachers don't have favorites, guess I'm not one of them. Raymond was one of my favorite, never forgotten, student. May he RIP.
