“ Oh how much I'm going to miss you abuelita

She was a second mom to me, everyday when Arturito and I were little we would always go over to her house and the little day care she had and spend all day there with her. She knew our favorite foods (Arturito with his tamales and me with my Frijoles con huevo y leche) her little jokes that she makes and how she always was willing to give everything to us. I remember one year in Christmas she got all of us blankets and I got one with wolves on it . She knew that was my favorite animal. I love when I would sleep over she would be up at 12 am drinking her coffee and her pan dulce and how she would also have a coffee prepared for me. She took ignited to take care of alyanna too (like how she took care of all of us) she love her so much.

*Hasta mañana, si Dios quiere
Forever in my heart my beautiful angel*

“ The first year that I moved with my grandma we had a little to celebrate my birthday and Tia Mona knew how much I loved Pollo loco so she took me there . Thanksgiving was always at her house and if we weren't able to make it that night she always showed up the next day with leftovers . We all loved her food ! Times my grandma was not able to take me to family parties yet my Tia Mona always took me. Little things that matter the most. Tia Mona always thought about others and made sure they were taken care of . She had an amazing big heart and will truly be missed.

She was my grandmas best friend actually all of her sisters were so closed to each other .

Funny story jejeje there was never not a day they would not talk to each other . One would hang up the next would be on the phone . “Abuela con quien habla que no contesta ?? Tus tías “ “Espérame me está hablando tu otra tía” too funny

And yes her “hasta mañana si dios quiere”

Que descanse en paz tía mona ☐☐☐ 🙏🙏
