“ I was making his website and I got a lot of communication, jokes, and quality chats with Richard, he was always talking about her daughters and wife how much he loved them and his bikes and trips since a long time, he was so proud and happy of his family, friends and work, I actually understand what you are going through so I just want to tell you Irma whatever whenever you need me I will be there for you, he is in a good place where he doesn't want you to suffer, I'm a witness how much he loves you all. God bless him! 🙏🥹
