“ My condolences to Rosie Perez's Family. My name is Angie, one of Rosie's many friends. I used to work with her at STxB as well. I had a while that i hadn't heard from Rosie, we lost in touch, (my biggest regret!). I came across a great friend (Cris), a couple of days ago n gave me the terrible news. My heart dropped n couldn't believe it. I was in shock! Til this day i still can't believe it. Rosie was an amazing person, a great friend, fun to hang out with. ALWAYS with a smile on her face no matter how her day went. I know for sure that she's in a great n peaceful place looking down on her loved ones, with that big smile on n taking care of all she left behind. I'm glad to have met Rosie. I sure wished that i could've been there through her tough times n to have paid respects. Rosie u will b FOREVER MISSED N LOVED!! <3 Stay strong Rosie's Family, just like she was a strong person. May God b with you all n help u get through these rough n though times.  REST IN PEACE ROSALVA PEREZ One of GOD'S ANGELS

“ Rozy, was a real cool person the people who met her knew how special that made her. We use to work together at a beauty supply store "South Texas Beauty Supply " to b exact,well we had so much fun meeting people especially guys, but it was always funny that we had so much in common.It was like a must every other day she would take me a frappe from starbucks. She knew i liked drinkking a cold coffe to get a fun day started. Why she left so early being my age? But our God is so big n only he has all the answers. ROZY, HOW I TOLD U ONE OF THE LETTERS, IM ALWAYS GONNA LOOK OUT FOR UR MOM!!! ITS A PROMISE I MADE N IM ALWAYS GONNA BE HERE. LOVED U LIKE A SISTER, ONE OF UR BEST FRIENDS CRIS
