“ Beautiful pictures and memories, will always hold comfort. In a time of loss, that’s all we have. And memories others share with us. My memory of Tia Rosalva is that she truly loved her sons & their wives. She was so proud of them. And she wanted to be a Grandma so bad. God bless her heart ❤️, she fought a good fight. Also I remember when she came down to Arlington, Tx. My mom Diana Saucedo, my son Robert Jr. & I went to visit her at the hotel. And that’s the 1st time my son started walking. We all were amazed and it was so cool, that the experience was shared with Tia Rosalva. Also in my moms darkest hours struggling with her illness Tia Rosalva was always making my mom Diana Saucedo laugh on the phone. They had a good times talking on the phone and FaceTiming. Even Robert Jr. talked to Tia on the phone and FaceTime. My son loved talking to her, she even gave us a house tour. My son loved her Elvis items in her house. My mom truly loved her sister. I know now they’re in heaven talking and enjoying each other’s company. I’m so sorry for your loss and I’m praying for all of you. Love you
