“Ruben, he was a friend of mine. We were classmates in high school and college (Pan American Uni. back then). Occasionally, he would come by my parents grocery store, by a soft drink and we'd talk about the events of the day. On the days when our college classes were completed for the day he and I would find a ride to commute back to our homes in Mission. We both lived in el Barrio so we had a lot to talk about while making the trip back home. Ruben was a friend. He was quick with a good humored joke. I lost contact with Ruben and his family when I left the Valley, but I never forgot his friendship. May he rest in peace.

Ruben & I were classmates while in high school. I last talked with him at the Toyota dealership while our cars were serviced. Ruben was quite yet intelligent with a soft spoken demeanor. The world needs more people like Ruben. Praying for his family.
