“ Happy Mother's Day, ma. I hate not having you with me on this day. It's painful to know you aren't here with me, and I can't hug and kiss you, and spend time with you. But truly, everyday is Mother's Day (and should be). I am getting better slowly. You would have loved the boyfriend I have now. You two would have gotten along so well.

“ *My mama,
You weren't supposed to leave my life first and so soon. I needed you more than you ever know, and I wanted so many more years with you.
You deserved so much better— the world, and despite this, you always managed to push and fight through life. You will always be a strong woman in my eyes, and God, words can't express everything I wish to say. It'd be endless. I hated how I've put you through so many things growing up, and I honestly still hold onto some times where you've hurt me. But despite it all, I was your little girl and you were my ma. I wish I could take back everything I've done, but I know you've always forgiven me.
My ma, it should have been me that left. Not you. Never you.
I miss you so much and life will never ever be the same for me.*
