

Sylvia Corona Obregon

September 3, 1953 - November 28, 2015

MISSION-Sylvia Corona Obregon, 62, left to be with the Lord on November 28, 2015, at home after a courageous battle with cancer of 3 years.

She was born on September 3, 1953, in Hanford, CA to Josie Bonilla and Juan Corona (+). She graduated from Edison High school in Fresno, CA. She is survived by her loving husband of 42 years, Ricardo Obregon Jr. Her children, Raquel Obregon Vargas, Rick Obregon, Reuben Obregon, and Rebecca Obregon. Her grandchildren, Christopher, Mark and Jason Vargas and Bryan Baez. She will also be greatly missed by her beloved mother, Josie Bonilla, her siblings, Frances Corona, Felix Corona, Rita Rios, Marta Cardenas, Isabel Camarena, Isidro Herrera, Erlinda Martinez, Irma Melendez, and David Martinez.

Sylvia was a Home Interiors & Gifts displayer for 27 years and a MCISD substitute teacher for 9 years. Her passion was working with children and even after being diagnosed with cancer she pursued her dream of becoming a teacher and accomplished her Bachelor's degree at the age of 61. She attended South Texas College and Texas A& M University-Kingsville. Due to her condition she wasn't able to pursue her career as a teacher. The Obregon family would like to thank M.D. Anderson, Ricardo Barrera, M.D., Billie J. Marek, M.D., and Hospice Compassionate Care for their medical services. Sylvia's wishes was that in lieu of flowers, she'd like monetary donations given to her church, PBC (Primera Baptist Church) which can be given at the funeral home or sent to, In care of Sylvia Obregon building fund, P.O.Box 18394
